

COUNTING THE OMER

Day 14 Journal Questions and Personal Notes

Area 1

Making it Personal: In the gospel, we learn that God lavished His love on sinners while they were still in their sin. How do you experience God's forgiveness and sense His valuation of you? Do you feel like His treasured possession? If not, cry out to Him and express it.

Area 2

Sharing it with someone: Who is someone you respect and honor? How might you express that to them today? Who might I pray for today - and plan to connect with them. Who am I discipling—who is discipling me?

Area 3

Sharing it with others: Consider parents' command to teach their children and children to honor their parents. Read together (Eph 6:1-3 and Deut 11:19-21) - how are both parent's and children's responses to do and honor related to the promise of the Land?

Esther 8:16 For the Jews there was radiant happiness and joyous honor.

Honor and respect are similar things. What do they mean to you? Now respect is defined as "a feeling of deep admiration for someone or something elicited by their abilities, qualities, or achievements." God's actions for His people in the times of Esther brought light, gladness, joy, and honor. They felt and experienced God's value of them. How do we feel we communicate honor to others?

Journal Questions

Each day, set apart some time to slow down and connect with God. Consider who is discipling you and who you are discipling. Write out your thoughts, reflections and discussions from questions in area 1, 2, and 3 on the front page.

Deuteronomy 11:19-21 Teach them to your children and speak of them as you sit in your house, as you walk along the road, as you lie down, and as you get up. Inscribe them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates so that your days and those of your descendants may be extended in the land that the LORD promised to give to your ancestors, like the days of heaven itself.
